CBR is currently focusing on Starbucks for our Corporate Accountability Project, which holds companies accountable for their corporate donations to Planned Parenthood. This outreach was held January 28, 2016, at a Starbucks in Irvine, California.

“Please help me. I have an appointment scheduled in less than 24 hours... Tomorrow morning at 8:00 am. I don’t know if this is the right or wrong thing to do. PLEASE HELP!”

The desperate email message arrived February 11, 2016, coming through our Find Help page on AbortionNO.org. We quickly replied, offering help, truth and hope, and urged her to cancel that appointment.

We rejoiced when “Julia” replied the next morning, “Good morning... I just told my mom I’m not going to my appointment.” Later that day, Julia wrote: “Thank you so much for the encouraging words. It meant a lot to me.... it helped me with my decision this morning... My baby is due in August. I’m so happy & excited.”

We are grateful for your support in 2015. Rejoice with us in how God is at work.

“Sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done marvelous things.” PSALM 98:1A

Student who visited GAP display at CSULB

Pastor Clenard Childress, Jr., CBR Board member and Founder of BlackGenocide.org, adeptly handled this interview with WBNS-10TV during the Feb. 22, 2016 All Black Lives Matter/Genocide Awareness Project at Ohio State University Law School in Columbus, Ohio. We decided it was important to visit this school after a law student faced persecution and a grilling by several law school deans after she wrote a Washington Times article about the high abortion rate among African-Americans. <http://bit.ly/21qyy0v>
