Genocide Awareness Project at "The Beach" - CSULB

On October 4, CBR returned to California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) to conduct a Genocide Awareness Project (GAP) display. Jose Espinoza, our sponsoring CSULB student, recommended that we take our signs back to the free speech area near the bookstore. Soon after we arrived with a team of 13 staff and volunteers, a representative from the Student Life and Development office appeared to inform us in a friendly manner that our signs did not meet the revised university standards. He handed us a half-sheet paper entitled "Free Speech at the Beach."

This university and others have concocted new regulations that appear to be designed to deter CBR displays. CBR Director of Operations Kevin Olivier politely explained how we have safely conducted our display over many years without safety issues. The representative informed us that his boss would come to the scene to speak with us.

CBR Executive Director Gregg Cunningham instructed Mr. Olivier to advise the administrators that we would not agree to new sign standards for which there was no rational basis and that this was a public university and we would not agree to leave the commons area unless they threatened us with arrest, in which case we would file a lawsuit against them in federal court.

We continued to hold our signs and interact with students, and although the supervisor arrived, she never approached us.

Two of our new staff members from Arizona traveled to assist us. Blake Dallariva and Georgi Fish were able to answer questions from the students and several students changed their positions on abortion after seeing the pictures and speaking with them.

The CSULB free speech paper offered students 10 ideas about "how to express" themselves, and accordingly, to oppose us. The ones we select for worst suggestions are: #3) Stand up and turn around to force the speaker to speak to your back; #4) Tape your mouth shut; and worst of all #10) Sing/chant loudly to drown out the message being delivered. So much for a quality education that teaches students how to disagree without being disagreeable and to value true public discourse.

When people lack a convincing argument, they often attempt to prevent CBR from making our arguments.

Thankfully, no students followed any of those suggestions during our display. Some expressed appreciation for us. God will use our photos to continue to work on the hearts of students.

Blake Dallariva, at right, of CBR Southwest interacted for some time with this CSULB student at the GAP display on October 4.

We are Engaged in a Spiritual Battle Between the Truth and Lies

Satan, our real enemy in the abortion wars, was known in Colonial America as “the deluder,” and the OLD DELUDER SATAN ACT is the name that was given to the Massachusetts school ordinance of 1647, derived from its preamble, which begins, “It being one of the chief projects of that old deluder Satan to keep men from the knowledge of the Scriptures.” What does God’s Word say about Truth as the only effective antidote to Satan’s lying, murdering, lawlessness?

John 8:44: “You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.”

John 10:10: “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”

1 John 3:8: “He that commits sin is of the devil; for the devil sinned from the beginning. For this purpose, the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.”

Isaiah 5:20: “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!”

Volunteer Bill spoke with a pro-choice Western Kentucky University student who had no idea about the process of an abortion. Rebecca returned later and told staff member Lincoln Brandenburg, “Before seeing this, I would have described myself as pro-choice. But these pictures are a game-changer.”

2 Thessalonians 2:7: “For this lawlessness is already at work secretly, and it will remain secret until the one who is holding it back steps out of the way.”

2 Thessalonians 2:3 refers to “the man of lawlessness” who will be the Anti-Christ, related to the Beast and the False Prophet described in Revelations 19.

2 Timothy 3:13: “... while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.”

We at CBR and in the Body of Christ are fighting lawlessness of a sort we have seldom witnessed in all of American history. An abortionist just announced that he is continuing to perform unlawful abortions in Texas, despite that state having just enacted legislation banning these procedures. Prosecutors across the country have announced that they will refuse to prosecute any violations of similar abortion prohibitions. Marxist billionaire George Soros is funding the campaigns of candidates for district attorney in city after city to elect anarchist prosecutors who refuse to charge assault and theft crimes.

This lawlessness is “the work of the devil” and Jesus has pledged to “destroy” it. By God’s grace and with your help, we are pledged to join Him in that battle.

CBR Southwest staff member Georgi Fish, center, spoke with a student who was confused about many abortion-related facts, but he was willing to hear the truth. Volunteer Sam (at left) listens in to the conversation during our Genocide Awareness Project at CSULB.

We thank you for standing with CBR in this battle for life.

“He [Satan] is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short.”

Pro-life MP Killed in Knife Attack

We were shocked and saddened to hear about the violent murder of Sir David Amess last Friday. [October 15, 2021] The news struck a particular chord with CBR-UK staff members as Sir David was one of the MPs we met outside the Conservative conference. Sir David not only stopped to discuss the issue with us and encouraged us, but suggested we take a photo together in front of our banners, instructing us all, moments before the picture was snapped, “not to smile.” Our thoughts and prayers are with Sir David’s family in this difficult time.

News from CBR-UK

Be encouraged and in prayer after reading this email report from CBR-UK:

Two weeks ago, we exposed DIY home abortion to members of the Conservative Party during their annual conference in Manchester. A fantastic team of educators joined us for the two days.

After 15 hours of Public Education Displays, we saw many minds changed and an encouraging number of party members being visibly uncomfortable with home abortions. Christian Hacking, our Parliamentary Liaison Officer, spoke with eight MPs [Members of Parliament], including the former Housing Minister Robert Jenrick. Their conversation highlights why our efforts are so necessary: the former minister was unaware that since December 2018, 248,000 babies had been killed in homes and disposed of either down the toilet or into domestic waste. We were encouraged to hear that at least two party members spoke personally with Sajid Javid, the Health Secretary, about home abortions, and many more said they would do likewise.

Christian Hacking reflects on our significant impact outside the conference:

“With many groups competing for the attention of policy makers, with chants, drums, slogans and some regrettably engaging in borderline harassment, I grew ever more confident over the day that the peaceful uncovering of abortion with banners by dedicated, well-trained educators remains one of the best ways to challenge society’s thinking on abortion.”
